6. On information and belief, Ann Schmidt has not filed a registration statement with the Government Accountability Board pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 11.05(2).

7. On information and belief, Ann Schmidt has not filed a registration statement with the Government Accountability Board pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 11.05(1).

8. The Recall Petition is invalid because the petitioner, Ann Schmidt, did not first file a registration statement as required by Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d). As described further in the attached Memorandum of Law in support of this challenge, the Government Accountability Board must find the Recall Petition is insufficient because of this fatal defect.

9. On information and belief, the Recall Petition includes the following irregularities, which are supported by the Affidavit of John W. Hogan, attached hereto:

a. At least 183 signatories to the Recall Petition did not date their signatures. Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)1., these signatures may not be counted.

b. At least five signatories did not sign the Recall Petition.

c. At least eighty-nine signatories signed the Recall Petition subsequent to the respective circulator's certification. Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)3., these signatures may not be counted.

d. The residency of at least 235 signatories to the Recall Petition cannot be determined by the address given. Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)4., these signatures may not be counted.

e. At least 474 signatories to the Recall Petition reside outside of the 14th Senate District. Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)5., these signatures may not be counted.

f. At least nineteen signatories are not qualified electors, as their names appear on the Ineligible Voter List provided by the Government Accountability Board. Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)8., these signatures may not be counted.

I, Luther Olsen, being first duly sworn upon oath, state that I personally read the above written challenge and that the above allegations are true and correct based on my personal knowledge and, as to those allegations stated on information and belief, I believe them to be true.

Dated this 28 day of April, 2011.

IN RE PETITION TO RECALL SENATOR LUTHER OLSEN
OF THE 14th SENATE DISTRICT

GOVERNMENT
ACCOUNTABILITY BOARD
WGAB ID # 0600010

MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF SENATOR LUTHER OLSEN'S
WRITTEN CHALLENGE TO THE RECALL PETITION OFFERED FOR FILING ON APRIL 18, 2011

INTRODUCTION

The recall petition filed on April 18, 2011 purporting to seek the recall of State Senator Luther Olsen (the "Recall Petition") must be rejected in its entirety as insufficient. The Recall Petition is fatally defective because the Petitioner, Ann Schmidt, failed to complete the registration process before circulating the petition, as required by Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d).

BACKGROUND

On March 2, 2011, Ann Schmidt signed and filed with the Government Accountability Board ("GAB") a Statement of Intent to Circulate Recall Petition ("Statement of Intent"), by which Ms. Schmidt stated her intention to circulate a petition to recall Luther Olsen, State Senator District 14.<sup>1</sup> The Statement of Intent identifies Ann Schmidt as the "Recall Petitioner" and Ann Schmidt signed the Statement of Intent on the line designated for "Signature of Petitioner."

On April 18, 2011, State Senator Luther Olsen was notified by GAB staff that the Committee to Recall Olsen ("Recall Committee") had "filed their signed recall petition" with

GAB on that date. GAB attached to its April 18, 2011 letter<sup>2</sup> a copy of a “Recall Petition Receipt” which indicated that the Recall Petition was delivered by Ann Schmidt and consisted of approximately 3,378 pages and approximately 24,000 signatures.

ARGUMENT

I. Ms. Schmidt Has Failed To Follow The Mandatory Statutory Prerequisites For Filing A Recall Petition

Notwithstanding GAB staff’s statement in its April 18, 2011 letter that the Recall Committee filed the Recall Petition, it is clear that Ann Schmidt is the recall Petitioner. Ms. Schmidt is the only individual who has filed a statement of intent to circulate a recall petition related to Senator Olsen. At no time has the Recall Committee filed a statement of its intent to circulate a recall petition, nor could it because, as addressed below, the recall statutes do not allow a committee to be the recall petitioner.

Ms. Schmidt has not, however, filed a registration statement under either Wis. Stat. §11.05(1) or (2). This failure is fatal to the Recall Petition, because Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) states unequivocally that “[n]o petition may be offered for filing for the recall of an officer unless the petitioner first files a registration statement . . . .” More importantly, Ms. Schmidt is barred from “circulat[ing] a petition for the recall of [Senator Olsen] prior to completing registration.” Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d). Since Ms. Schmidt has not filed a registration statement, the circulation period has not begun and none of the signatures on the Recall Petition may be counted. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)2. (“an individual signature on a petition sheet may not be counted if . . . the signature is dated outside the circulation period”).

II. Wisconsin Law Clearly Requires That A Recall Petitioner Be An Individual

Despite the Recall Committee's attempt to function as the recall petitioner, Wisconsin's recall statute clearly requires that "the petitioner" must be an individual. The statutory scheme governing the recall of elective officials is replete with references to individuals. For example, only qualified electors are permitted to collectively petition for the recall of a State Senator (Wis. Stat. § 9.10(1)) and each individual page of the Recall Petition must be certified by an adult who either is a qualified elector or would be a qualified elector but for the fact that they reside outside the 14th Senate District (Wis. Stat. §§ 5.02(16g), 9.10(2)(em)2.). Most significantly, each recall effort must be initiated by an individual who indicates "his or her intent to circulate a recall petition" and who ultimately offers the recall petition for filing. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d).

The statutory requirement that "the petitioner" must indicate "his or her intent" in order to trigger the sixty-day circulation period unambiguously establishes that only an individual can serve as "the petitioner." GAB staff's erroneous conclusion that the Recall Committee is the petitioner rests on an interpretation of Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) that completely ignores the legislature's use of the phrase "his or her."<sup>3</sup> Fundamental rules of statutory construction do not allow GAB staff or the Government Accountability Board to delete this phrase from the statute. Johnson v. State, 76 Wis. 2d 672, 676, 251 N.W.2d 834 (1977) ("a law should be so construed that no word or clause shall be rendered surplusage . . . every word appearing in a statute should contribute to the construction of the statute in accordance with its ordinary and customary meaning") (internal quotes and citations omitted); see also Donaldson v. State, 93 Wis. 2d 306,

<sup>3</sup> In statutory interpretation, the words "his" and "her" are to be "construed according to common and approved usage." Wis. Stat. § 990.01(1). The Recall Committee does not assert that it can manifest "his or her" intent, nor could it. By statutory definition, the Recall Committee cannot be a single individual. Wis. Stat. § 11.01(4).

315, 286 N.W.2d 817 (1980) (“a statute should be construed so that no word or clause shall be rendered surplusage and every word if possible should be given effect”).

The legislature’s unambiguous requirement that “the petitioner” must be an individual who is capable of expressing “his or her intent” also cannot be isolated and confined to a single sentence within § 9.10. Rather, the word “petitioner” must be given the same meaning throughout the recall petition statute. Donaldson v. Bd. of Comm’rs of Rock-Koshkonong Lake Dist., 2003 WI App 26, ¶ 13, 260 Wis. 2d 238, 659 N.W.2d 66 (“words appearing multiple times in the same statute are given the same meaning unless the context clearly requires a different meaning”) (reversed on other grounds). Therefore, references in § 9.10 to “the petitioner” refer to an individual and not a corporate or other unnatural entity. GAB’s recall manual expresses this same conclusion and states that only an individual can be the recall petitioner. Under the heading “Who Can Initiate a Recall?” it states: “Any qualified elector of the election district from which the officeholder was elected may initiate a recall. . . . The person who files the recall petition is referred to as the petitioner.” Recall of Congressional, County and State Officials (June 2009) at 3.

Nowhere in the recall statutes is a committee or any other unnatural person permitted to be the recall petitioner.<sup>4</sup> Rather, committees can be formed for the purpose of supporting or opposing recall efforts. See, e.g., Wis. Stat. § 11.02(3m) (identifying the appropriate “filing officer” for . . . [a] committee which supports or opposes an effort to circulate and file a petition to recall an individual who holds an office”); Wis. Stat. § 11.20(4m) (requiring that a “committee which supports or opposes an effort to circulate and file a petition to recall an officer shall file a report . . . no later than 30 days after registration of the petitioner for recall of the officer”). Indeed, the Recall Committee registered as just such a committee.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Note that because the recall petitioner must be a single individual, there is no danger of the petitioner completing the registration process multiple times in an effort to create a rolling circulation period that exceeds sixty days. Neither is there any danger of confusion regarding when a petition is “offered for filing,” since it is “the petitioner” that must present the petition to the filing officer. The clear language of § 9.10(2)(d) adequately addresses these issues, which GAB staff has recently attempted to clarify.

There is no doubt that under the clear, unambiguous language of Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d), Ms. Schmidt is the petitioner.

III. Ms. Schmidt Failed To Comply With The Statutory Requirements Set Forth In Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d).

A. Ms. Schmidt Was Required To File A Campaign Registration Form.

Section 9.10(2) sets forth various requirements that must be met in order for the qualified electors of the 14th Senate District to exercise their right to recall Senator Olsen. For example, a recall petition may not be offered for filing during the first year of an elective term. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(s). An otherwise valid signature on a recall petition may not be counted if the petition page it is on is not validly certified by a qualified circulator. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(em). A qualified elector’s signature on a recall petition may not be counted if his or her residency cannot be determined by the address provided on the petition. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(e)4. And, a qualified elector’s signature on a recall petition may not be counted if the elector signed the petition either too soon or too late, which is determined by the date the petitioner completes the required registration. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d), (e)2.

The petitioner’s act of properly registering according to the requirements of § 9.10 is critical to the sufficiency of a recall petition, because the petitioner may not circulate a petition “prior to completing registration.” Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d). Section 9.10(2)(d) states:

No petition may be offered for filing for the recall of an officer unless the petitioner first files a registration statement under s. 11.05 (1) or (2) with the filing officer with whom the petition is filed. The petitioner shall append to the registration a statement indicating his or her intent to circulate a recall petition, the name of the officer for whom recall is sought and, in the case of a petition for the recall of a city, village, town, town sanitary district, or school district officer, a statement of a reason for the recall which is related to the official responsibilities of the official for whom removal is sought. No petitioner may circulate a petition for the recall of an officer prior to completing registration. The last date that a petition for the recall of an officer may be offered for filing is 5 p.m. on the 60th day commencing after registration. After the recall petition has been offered for filing, no name may be added or removed. No signature may be counted unless the date of the signature is within the period provided in this paragraph.

<sup>5</sup> The Committee to Recall Olsen’s GAB-1 Campaign Registration Statement, dated February 28, 2011, specifies that it is a recall committee registering for the purpose of supporting the effort to recall Senator Olsen.

(Emphasis added.) This provision imposes a distinct registration requirement on an individual who seeks to begin circulating a petition to recall a state senator. To satisfy this requirement, the petitioner must register under either Wis. Stat. § 11.05(1) or Wis. Stat. § 11.05(2).

B. Ms. Schmidt Has Never Registered With The Government Accountability Board.

As the petitioner, Ms. Schmidt had two registration options. She could have registered a committee, pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 11.05(1), or she could have registered as an individual, pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 11.05(2). It is undisputed that she never registered under either section. Ms. Schmidt has not registered as an individual under sub (2). Furthermore, Ms. Schmidt has not registered a committee that covers her campaign finance activities. As the petitioner, Ms. Schmidt has simply failed to fulfill the requirement that “the petitioner first file[] a registration statement.” Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d).

C. Ms. Schmidt Did Not Satisfy Her Obligation To Register By Filing The Recall Committee’s Registration Statement.

Ms. Schmidt and/or the Recall Committee may argue that Ms. Schmidt satisfied the requirements of § 9.10(2)(d) by filing a registration on behalf of the Recall Committee. Such an argument would fail because Ms. Schmidt is not a member of the Recall Committee. No reasonable construction of § 9.10(2)(d) would countenance the petitioner satisfying his or her registration obligation by filing a GAB-1 form for a separate entity.<sup>6</sup>

If a recall petitioner chooses to satisfy the registration requirement by registering as a committee pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 11.05(1), as opposed to registering as an individual under sub. (2), then “he or she” must satisfy the requirements of the definition of a committee. A simple reading of the relevant statutory provisions provides clear guidance. A committee can be either “any person other than an individual” (which a petitioner may not be) or “any combination of 2 or more persons.” Wis. Stat. § 11.01(4). Had Ms. Schmidt registered as a committee, she would have to be one of the “2 or more persons” forming the committee. Yet, Ms. Schmidt has not provided GAB with any evidence that she is one of the “2 or more persons” that comprise the Recall Committee.<sup>7</sup>

As with registration under Wis. Stat. § 11.05 generally, a principal purpose of registering under § 9.10(2)(d) is to inform the Government Accountability Board whether the petitioner intends to accept contributions and make disbursements in an amount sufficient to require the filing of finance reports or if the petitioner is exempt pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 11.05(2r). While the Recall Committee registered, the Government Accountability Board has no way of knowing whether or not the petitioner, Ms. Schmidt, will “accept contributions, make disbursements or incur obligations in an aggregate amount of more than $1,000 in a calendar year or accept any contribution or cumulative contributions of more than $100 from a single source during the

<sup>6</sup> This conclusion is confirmed by Wis. Stat. § 11.05(1), which provides that a committee’s registration statement “shall be filed by the treasurer,” and § 11.05(5m), which provides that the individual filing a registration statement must certify “that all information contained in a statement is true, correct and complete.”

<sup>7</sup> Ms. Schmidt is not identified anywhere on the Recall Committee’s registration statement, despite the fact that the law requires the Recall Committee to specifically identify all of its principal officers in addition to its treasurer. Wis. Stat. § 11.05(3)(f).

calendar year...” (GAB-1 form.) Accordingly, as expressly required in Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d), the petitioner must register.

IV. The Statutory Requirements Must Be Followed In Order To Compel A Recall Election.

The fact that the electors’ right of recall is constitutionally provided does not excuse Ms. Schmidt’s failure to follow the requirements of the recall statute. If the Government Accountability Board looks past this fundamental flaw in the effort to recall Senator Olsen, there will be no logical stopping point for determining which essential statutory requirements must be followed and which nonessential statutory requirements can be ignored. The statutory requirements outlined in § 9.10 place numerous limitations on the electors’ right of recall; yet, the general right does not excuse failure to follow those prescribed requirements.

Here, the recall petitioner, Ms. Schmidt, did not first file a registration statement. If this error can be excused then perhaps the failure to file a statement of intent should also constitute excusable error. Perhaps a petition that is offered for filing on the 65th day after registration should be accepted, despite the clear procedural deficiency. These deficiencies could only be ignored if the entire statute were to be ignored.

Any argument that the Wisconsin Constitution compels the Government Accountability Board to determine that the Recall Petition is sufficient, despite the petitioner’s failure to comply with Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d), would constitute an attack on the constitutionality of the statute. As a state agency, the Board has no authority to attack the constitutionality of a statute, but is bound to apply it. Helgeland v. Wisconsin Municipalities, 2008 WI 9, ¶ 108, 307 Wis. 2d 1, 745 N.W.2d 1 (finding that public officers charged with enforcing a statute have a duty to uphold the validity of the challenged statute); Metz v. Veterinary Examining Bd., 2007 WI App 220, ¶ 21, 305 Wis. 2d 788, 741 N.W.2d 244 (“administrative agencies do not have the power to declare statutes unconstitutional”).

A. Compliance With The Statutory Requirements Cannot Be Waived By GAB Staff Guidance.

The fact that the Recall Committee may have relied on the GAB staff’s erroneous interpretation of the registration requirements in gathering the signatures does not grant the Board the ability to circumvent the clear and unambiguous language of the statute.<sup>8</sup> In State ex rel. McIntyre v. Bd. of Election Comm’rs of the City of Milwaukee, 273 Wis. 395, 78 N.W.2d 752 (1956), the plaintiff made a similar argument when he failed to timely file his petition for a recount. McIntyre, 273 Wis. at 399. There, the plaintiff missed the statutory filing deadline because he relied on advice of the Board of Election Commissioners, which stated that the filing deadline was a full day after the statutorily proscribed deadline. Id. Nevertheless, the court found that the filing deadline must be strictly adhered to, even where the petitioner relied on the erroneous interpretation of the Board of Election Commissioners. Id. at 402.

B. The Government Accountability Board Cannot Rewrite The Statutory Scheme That Provides For Individual Petitioners.

The Government Accountability Board is without authority to amend the clear mandate of § 9.10(2)(d), either through formal rulemaking or informal staff interpretations. Administrative agencies are charged with the implementation of statutes duly enacted by the legislature. See Plain v. Harder, 268 Wis. 507, 512, 68 N.W.2d 47 (1955). However, there are clear limitations on the scope of an agency’s power to implement and interpret legislation. See

<sup>8</sup> Indeed, GAB has taken this very position in a related matter. With respect to the recall petition offered April 1, 2011 for filing against Senator Dan Kapanke, GAB staff initially informed counsel for Senator Kapanke that the 10-day challenge period under Wis. Stat. § 9.10(3)(b) would be counted as business days rather than calendar days, thereby extending the length of that time period by four days. Six days into the challenge period, GAB staff informed Senator Kapanke’s counsel it had been mistaken and that it lacked authority to extend the time period. Regardless of any reliance on GAB’s prior guidance, GAB staff informed counsel for Senator Kapanke that the shorter time period applied. (See Exh. C, attached hereto.)

State ex rel. Castaneda v. Welch, 2007 WI 103, ¶ 26, 303 Wis. 2d 570, 735 N.W.2d 131. The power of a state agency is strictly limited to power conferred upon it by the legislature through an enabling statute. Id. An agency’s enabling statute is strictly construed, and “any reasonable doubt pertaining to an agency’s implied powers” must be resolved against the agency. Id. (citing Wisconsin Citizens Concerned for Cranes & Doves v. DNR, 2004 WI 40, ¶14, 270 Wis. 2d 318, 677 N.W.2d 612). While an agency has the power to interpret legislative enactments, it may not do so where legislative intent is clearly stated in the statute. Basic Products Corp. v. Wisconsin Dept. of Taxation, 19 Wis. 2d 183, 186, 120 N.W.2d 161 (1963); Plain, 268 Wis. at 511 (holding that an agency’s rulemaking power “does not extend beyond the power to carry into effect the purpose as expressed in the enactment of the legislature”).

As expressed above, “agencies must follow unambiguously expressed legislative intent.” Oneida County v. Converse, 180 Wis. 2d 120, 125, 508 N.W.2d 416 (1993). Indeed, while reviewing courts often afford some degree of deference to an agency’s interpretation of a statute, such deference is not afforded where an interpretation directly contravenes the words of the statute or is clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature. Lisney v. Labor & Indus. Review Comm’n, 171 Wis. 2d 499, 506, 493 N.W.2d 14 (1992); Volvo Trucks North America v. State of Wisconsin Dept. of Transportation, 2010 WI 15, ¶ 18, 323 Wis. 2d 294, 779 N.W.2d 423 (holding that an agency’s interpretation and application of a statute may be upheld “if it is not contrary to the clear meaning of the statute”) (citation omitted); Mallo v. Wisconsin Dept. of Revenue, 202 WI 70, ¶ 16, 253 Wis. 2d 391, 645 N.W.2d 85 (holding that a reviewing court’s first duty is to the legislature and, as such, a court will not “uphold a rule that is contrary to the language of the statute”).

Further, it is clear that “[a]n agency cannot promulgate a rule inconsistent with an unambiguous statute.” Oneida County, 180 Wis. 2d at 125; Mallo, 2002 WI 70, ¶ 15 (holding that “[n]o agency may promulgate a rule which conflicts with state law”) (citations omitted). In fact, the Wisconsin Supreme Court has held that “a rule out of harmony with the statute is a mere nullity.” Plain, 268 Wis. at 511 (citations omitted). As such, it is abundantly clear that “[a]n administrative rule, even of long duration, may not stand at variance with an unambiguous statute.” Basic Products Corp., 19 Wis. 2d at 186.

It follows that an agency’s method of practice or interpretation that ignores the plain language of a statute cannot stand. In State ex rel. Stearns v. Zimmerman, the plaintiff failed to file his nomination papers for the senate primary election within the timeframe mandated by statute. State ex rel. Stearns v. Zimmerman, 257 Wis. 443, 445, 43 N.W.2d 681 (1950). In denying the plaintiff’s prayer for relief, the Wisconsin Supreme Court held that “the time limit set by the legislature for the filing of nomination papers must be strictly enforced.” Id. This is so because the legislature has expressly provided a firm deadline for the filing of nomination papers, and any interpretation in conflict with that firm deadline cannot stand. Id. at 446. According to the court, to hold otherwise would be tantamount to allowing an agency to amend the statute, not construe it. Id. Ultimately, “[t]he interests of the electors are served by a strict compliance” with the language of a statute where that language evinces a clear legislative intent. State ex rel. McIntyre v. Bd. of Election Commissioners of the City of Milwaukee, 273 Wis. 395, 402, 78 N.W.2d 752 (1956) (holding that the principles articulated in Stearns apply to deadlines for seeking a recount where the legislature has explicitly provided filing deadlines).

Here, to allow a petition for recall which has not been offered for filing in compliance with the plain language of Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) to go forward would be tantamount to amending, rather than interpreting, the statute. See State ex rel. Stearns, 257 Wis. at 446. Like the statutes at issue in Stearns and McIntyre, Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) is “so specific and so within the realm of the legislative that there is no occasion to resort to construction or interpretation.” State ex rel. McIntyre, 273 Wis. at 402. Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) specifically states that “[n]o petitioner may circulate a petition for the recall of an officer prior to completing registration.” The legislative intent in this section is clear – a petitioner must register under Wis. Stat. § 11.05. Here, the petitioner, Ms. Schmidt did not register.

CONCLUSION

The Recall Petition is invalid because the petitioner failed to follow the mandatory procedures of Wis. Stat. § 9.10(2)(d) in order to trigger the start of the circulation period. No signature on the Recall Petition may be counted and the entire petition is, therefore, insufficient.

RE: Committee to Recall Olsen
WGAB ID #0600010

Dear Senator Olsen:

This correspondence and enclosure is to notify you that the Committee to Recall Olsen filed their signed recall petition with the Government Accountability Board on 4/18/2011 and we have now begun our review process. Please find enclosed a copy of the Recall Petition Receipt issued by our staff to the Committee to Recall Olsen as well as a courtesy copy of the petition itself on the enclosed CD.

The G.A.B. has 31 days from 4/18/2011 to examine the petition and make a determination as to its sufficiency, subject to a Court order extending the examination period. Our review process is a facial review that assumes the validity of the information provided. For details, please see the enclosed "Determination of Sufficiency of Recall Petitions".

Please Note: As the officeholder, you may file a written challenge with the G.A.B. specifying any alleged insufficiency of the petition within 10 days of 4/18/2011. If this falls on a holiday, the deadline will be the next business day. The petitioner will have 5 days after your challenge is filed to file a written rebuttal. As the challenger, within 2 days after the petitioner files a rebuttal, you may file a written reply to any new matter raised in the rebuttal.

If you have not already, please identify a point of contact, including mailing address, email address, and telephone number, so that we may be able to reach you in the future. If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at (608) 267-0951 or email me at David.Buerger@wisconsin.gov.

Subject: Re: Confirmation 10 Day

Attorney McCleod:

This email confirms our telephone conversation early in the afternoon on Thursday, April 7, 2011.

Upon advice of our counsel, the Kapanke Recall challenges are due Monday at 4:30 p.m. rather than any previous date we communicated to you, as the civil procedure timing of Sec. 801.15, Wis. Stats., does not apply to recall matters under Sec. 9.10, Wis. Stats. The Sec. 990.001(4), Wis. Stats., provisions still apply, but that does not extend your deadline beyond Monday.

It is my understanding that you are currently working with our counsel to obtain relief from a Court regarding the statutory 10 day challenge deadline.

Thank you.

- c. Based on my review, at least eighty-nine signatories signed the Recall Petition subsequent to the respective circulator's certification. Details regarding these signatories, including their respective names and the Recall Petition page numbers at which their respective signatures appear, are described on the attached Exhibit C.
- d. Based on my review, the residency of at least 235 signatories cannot be determined by the address given. Details regarding these signatories, including the Recall Petition page numbers at which their respective signatures appear, are described on the attached Exhibit D.
- e. Based on my review, at least 474 signatories reside outside of the 14th Senate District. Details regarding these signatories, including their respective names and the Recall Petition page numbers at which their respective signatures appear, are described on the attached Exhibit E.
- f. Based on my review, at least nineteen signatories are not qualified electors, as their names appear on the Ineligible Voter List provided by the Government Accountability Board. Details regarding these signatories, including their respective names, addresses and Recall Petition page number, are described on the attached Exhibit F.
- g. Based on my review, at least 139 signatories signed the Recall Petition twice and one signatory signed the Recall Petition three times. Details regarding these signatories, including their respective names, addresses and the Recall Petition page numbers at which their signatures appear, are described on the attached Exhibit G.

h. Based on my review, at least thirty Recall Petition pages, collectively containing 177 individual signatures, were not properly certified by the circulator. Many circulators failed to state his or her residence, as required by Wis. Stat. § 8.40(2). Certain circulators failed to sign and/or date the circulator certification. Details regarding these incomplete certifications, including the respective Recall Petition page numbers, the number of signatures on each respective petition page and a description of the certification deficiency, are described on the attached Exhibit H.

5. The attached Exhibits A – H have been prepared at my direction based on my review of numerous pages of the Recall Petition.

Dated this 28 day of April, 2011.
