SUBJECT: Voter Photo ID Informational Teleconference Calls Scheduled

By now, we trust you have had a chance to review the Voter ID implementation information we posted to our website last week. Within the next several weeks, G.A.B. staff will be conducting a series of WisLine teleconference calls to answer questions county and municipal clerks may have regarding Wisconsin's Voter Photo ID Law and our newly posted information. Clerks without email were mailed these documents last week.

At this time, we are only focusing on those provisions of the law that must be applied to the 2011 July and August summer recall and special elections. We will concentrate on implementing the provisions that become fully effective in 2012, after the summer's election process is concluded.

Each WisLine teleconference is limited to 100 phone lines. If you are unable to access the teleconference on one particular date, please try another date. We will schedule additional dates and times if needed.

The schedule is as follows:

1. Thursday, June 30, 2011: 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm;
2. Wednesday, July 6, 2011: 10:00 am – 12:00 pm;
