SUBJECT: Spring 2013 Campaign Finance Training Schedule Announcement

The Government Accountability Board's Ethics & Accountability Division will be holding 10 training sessions in May and June around the state on campaign finance law and using the G.A.B.'s Campaign Finance Information System. These two-hour training sessions are intended for candidates and committee treasurers, but may also be useful to county and municipal clerks who serve as filing officers for local campaign finance registrations and reports.

Clerks who know of local candidates and committees that would benefit from the training are encouraged to share the schedule:
