Senate District 20 Results Certified

MADISON, WI – The Wisconsin Government Accountability Board today issued a certificate of election to State Senator Duey Stroebel, who was elected to the 20th Senate District during a Special Election on Tuesday, April 7.

Judge Timothy Vocke, designee of the chair of the G.A.B., certified the canvass of the election Monday morning in Rhinelander, after which Kevin Kennedy, Wisconsin's chief election official, signed the certificate of election for Senator Stroebel so he may take the oath of office.

The canvass for the April 7 Spring Election will be certified at the G.A.B.'s regular meeting on Wednesday, April 29.
