Major Impacts

Major Impacts Wisconsin's New Voter Photo ID Law

Information provided by the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board

What registration and proof of residence laws have changed?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The residency requirement has changed from 10 days to 28 consecutive days. ➤ An elector can no longer use a corroborating witness to provide proof of residence. ➤ There are changes to proof of residency requirements for college and university students. Further information is available on the University or College ID document. ➤ A Special Registration Deputy (SRD) can only be appointed by a municipal clerk, and will no longer be appointed as a statewide SRD by the G.A.B. A SRD appointed by a municipal clerk can only register electors within that municipality during open registration (20 days or more before Election Day). ➤ Registration ends at 5 p.m. or the close of business, whichever is later, on the Friday before Election Day and begins again on Election Day.
What has changed at the polling place?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Electors must sign a poll list before being issued a ballot. The G.A.B. has determined that a voter will be required to sign only one poll list. Electors who have a physical disability that prevents them from being able to sign the poll list are exempt from this provision. ➤ Electors voting at the polling place must show a photo ID in order to vote beginning in 2012.
What has changed on the ballot?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Voters will no longer be able to select a straight-party ticket (unless they are Military or Overseas Absentee voters). Instead, each candidate must be selected individually.
What has changed for absentee voting?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ In-person absentee voting begins the third Monday before the election, and ends at 5 p.m. or the close of business, whichever is later, the Friday before the election. ➤ During in-person absentee voting, municipal clerks must ask voters to provide a photo ID. No copy of the ID will be made, instead the clerk will mark on the absentee envelope that ID has been provided. ➤ Photo ID will be required for mail-in absentee voting, with some exceptions, for elections starting with the 2012 February Primary. Requirements and exceptions can be found in the Wisconsin's New Voter Photo ID Law and Absentee Voting document posted on the G.A.B. website. ➤ Clerks must send absentee ballots electronically if requested by the voter; this is no longer optional.

For detailed information about the Voter Photo ID law, please visit the Government Accountability Board website: <http://gab.wi.gov> or call 1-866-VOTE-WIS or contact the G.A.B. Help Desk at 608-261-2028 or TTY 1-800-947-3529.

Wisconsin's New Voter Photo ID Law

Information provided by the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board

What has changed in the law?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ As of June 2011, voters may no longer use a “corroborating witness” to provide their proof of residence. Voters do not always need to provide proof of residence when they register, but if required to provide proof of residence, it must be a paper document. ➤ As of January 1, 2012, a valid photo ID, or acceptable substitute, must be provided when voting by absentee ballot or at the polling place, unless you are part of a group exempted by statute. There is no exception for Homeless Voters in the statute – they must also provide photo ID.
What residential address should I use for voting purposes?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Homeless individuals may designate a fixed location as their residence for voting purposes if it is an identifiable location in the state of Wisconsin which could conceivably serve as a temporary residence. This location may be a homeless shelter, a park bench, or other location where a homeless individual may spend time or return to when absent. ➤ For homeless voters, this means that if they have established a residence, they may continue to claim that residence as a voting address, even if they no longer physically reside at that location, if they have intent to return. This would allow voters who had stayed with friends or family to continue using that address for voting purposes. See below for proof of residence rules. ➤ Note that P.O. Boxes are not acceptable – your voting address must be a physical location, so election officials can determine which districts you vote in, and in which contests you get to vote. ➤ Note that a shelter address is an acceptable residence for voting purposes, notwithstanding any restriction in the shelter’s rules prohibiting its use as a residential address. “Residence” for voting purposes is distinct from other types of residence. See below for proof of residence rules. ➤ Note that you may use a physical location that is not a valid mailing address. If you can describe the place where you stay so the municipal clerk can locate it on a map, a park, street or alley may be used as your “residence” for voting purposes. However, you may still have to provide a document for proof of residence, and any such document would have to identify that physical location. See below for proof of residence rules.
Can I register without a document that proves my address?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ If registering in the municipal clerk’s office 20 days or more before an election (open registration), the voter does not have to provide proof of residence. ➤ If registering in the clerk’s office less than 20 days before an election, or at the polling place, a voter must provide proof of residence. See the list of acceptable documents below. Often homeless voters are able to produce a check or other document from a unit of government, including an affidavit from public or private social service agencies. A driver license or state ID card with your voting address can also qualify as proof of residence. (continued on next page)

If I must provide proof of residence, what documents can I use?	Acceptable proof of residence documents include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An affidavit on public or private social service agency letterhead identifying a homeless voter and describing the individual's residence for voting purposes. • A current and valid Wisconsin driver license or identification card. • Any other official identification card or license issued by a Wisconsin governmental body or unit. • Any identification card issued by an employer in the normal course of business and bearing a photo of the card holder, but not including a business card. • A real estate tax bill or receipt for the current year or the year preceding the date of the election. • A university, college, or technical identification card (must include photo) ONLY if the voter provides a fee receipt dated within the last 9 months or the institution provides a certified housing list to the municipal clerk. • A gas, electric, or telephone service statement (utility bill) for the period commencing not earlier than 90 days before Election Day. Electronic statements may be used only if printed. • Bank statement. Electronic statements may be used only if printed. • Paycheck. • A check or other document issued by a unit of government. • Residential lease. (Not valid if registering by mail).
How do I get a photo ID to vote?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) offers free state ID cards if the voter indicates they will be using the ID in order to vote. If you cannot find this checkbox on the form, you should ask a DMV service representative to help you. Note that you will have to provide the DMV with proof of identity, legal presence, name and date of birth, and residency in order to obtain a state ID card. If the ID card contains your voting address, you may also use it as proof of residence.
Can I vote by absentee ballot?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ If you are registered to vote, you may apply to vote by absentee ballot. No excuse is required. You may apply for an absentee ballot in person in the municipal clerk's office, or by mail, email, or fax. ➤ Absentee voters must provide a copy of their photo ID with their absentee ballot request. (If you request a ballot by fax or email, you may provide a copy of the photo ID with the absentee application or ballot.) Once photo ID is provided, the voter no longer has to provide photo ID with any absentee ballots, until they re-register (their name or address changes). ➤ Absentee voters may request a ballot for one or more elections, up to one calendar year. (January 1 – December 31). Please remember you will have to renew your absentee application to continue receiving ballots. ➤ You may keep your "voting residence" the same even if you move, as long as you have the intent to return. Update your absentee mailing address with the municipal clerk in order to keep receiving ballots. ➤ The postage to return your ballot is paid for by the municipal clerk.

Ex-Felons and Incarcerated Voters Wisconsin's New Voter Photo ID Law

Information provided by the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board

What has changed in the law?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ As of January 1, 2012, a valid photo ID, or acceptable substitute, must be provided when voting by absentee ballot or at the polling place, unless you are part of a group exempted by statute.
Am I eligible to vote?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ In Wisconsin, anyone convicted of a felony who has not yet completed the terms of their sentence, including probation, incarceration and supervision, is ineligible to vote. Felons become eligible to vote again only when they complete their probation or supervision. ➤ If you are incarcerated because of a misdemeanor, not a felony, you are eligible to vote. This includes most people in county jails and voters who were convicted of a felony and a misdemeanor, but have served the entire sentence for the felony, and are still in jail or prison for the misdemeanor. ➤ People who have been committed under chapter 980 (for sexually violent offenses) are still eligible to vote, if they have completed the term of their correctional sentence, probation, or supervision. ➤ Voting rights are also restored if you are pardoned.
I have completed my supervision (am “off paper”) for my felony. Do I need to do anything special to register?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Once you have completed your probation or supervision, you can register to vote. You do not need to provide any special documents, other than proof of residence, in order to register. You do have to certify on your voter registration form that you are no longer under correctional supervision. ➤ Be aware that it is a felony to vote while still under correctional supervision for a felony. The G.A.B. compares a list of people who voted with a list of felons on supervision after each election.
What is my address for voting purposes?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ If you are incarcerated, the address where you lived immediately before you were incarcerated is your address for voting purposes. You may not use the jail or prison as your voting address. ➤ If you are not incarcerated, you should use the address where you currently reside. Since residency for voting purposes is different from residency for other purposes, you may register at a half-way house or other facility, even if their rules state it is not a residence for other purposes. (continued on next page)

Do I need a photo ID to vote?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ You need an acceptable photo ID to request an absentee ballot and vote. If you had a photo ID when you were incarcerated, you will have to ask the staff of the institution to make a copy of that ID for you. If you do not already have an acceptable photo ID, and cannot leave the institution to obtain one, you will not be able to vote.
Can I vote by absentee ballot?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ You may request an absentee ballot by mail. A copy of your photo ID must be included with the absentee request and mailed to the municipal clerk. You must ask the staff of the institution to make a copy of your photo ID, or allow you to use a copy of your photo ID provided by someone else. You must also sign an absentee ballot request form, which can be mailed by the staff of your institution, or a third party ➤ If you request an absentee ballot by email or fax, you do not have to provide a copy of your photo ID with the ballot request. However, you must provide photo ID with the ballot when you return it. ➤ Voters who are incarcerated, but still eligible to vote, do not qualify to receive absentee ballots permanently, for every election. In order to receive absentee ballots permanently, you must be “indefinitely confined” because of age, illness, infirmity, or disability.
What if I live at home but am monitored by a “bracelet”?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ If you are monitored by a “bracelet”, or under a work-release program, you may need to get special permission to go to the DMV to obtain a photo ID, vote absentee in the municipal clerk’s office, or vote at the polls on Election Day. Make sure you speak to the appropriate people before performing any of these tasks.

Name Changes

Wisconsin's New Voter Photo ID Law

Information provided by the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board

What has changed in the law?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ As of January 1, 2012, a valid photo ID, or acceptable substitute, must be provided when voting by absentee ballot or at the polling place, unless you are part of a group exempted by statute.
When does my name change become effective for voting purposes?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ For voting purposes, a name change is not effective until you have updated the name with the agency that issues your acceptable photo ID. Usually this will be the Wisconsin DMV, but it can include the US Department of State (passports), a branch of the armed services, a federally-recognized Indian tribe, or an accredited college or university. Even if you have recently married or divorced, or changed your name by court order, if you have not updated your name with that agency, you should continue to register and vote under your previous name. If you register under the new name, and it is listed on the poll list, but your photo ID shows your previous name, the poll workers may insist that you vote by provisional ballot. ➤ If you are updating your name with the Wisconsin DMV, you must first change your name with the Social Security Administration (SSA). Once your name has been changed with SSA, you can change your name with the DMV immediately.
Do I need to reregister to vote?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Yes. If your name changes, even if you are at the same address, you must fill out an updated voter registration application. Be sure to give your prior name in the space provided.
If I hyphenate my name, is that close enough?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Wisconsin law requires that the name on photo ID “conforms to the individual’s voter registration form.” Since the entire previous name is contained in the new name, the G.A.B. has decided these names “conform.” However, the G.A.B. recommends that your voter registration should always be updated to the name on your photo identification.
Where can I get more information?	Go to http://ssa-custhelp.ssa.gov and click the link to “Change a name on a social security card.” Or call your local Social Security office. Go to http://www.dot.wisconsin.gov/drivers/name-change.htm or call your local DMV or the statewide number 608-266-2353.

Confidential Voters

Wisconsin's New Voter Photo ID Law

Information provided by the Wisconsin Government Accountability Board

What has changed in the law?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ As of January 2012, an elector who has a confidential listing may present his or her Protected Individual Identification Card (GAB-148) or give his or her name and confidential voter identification serial number in lieu of stating his or her name and address and presenting a valid photo ID. ➤ As of June 2011, confidential electors who vote at the polling place must sign the poll list.
