The Complaint of Timothy R. Dietrich, Complainant against

Rich Zipperer and the committee Citizens for Rich Zipperer, Respondent, whose address is N24 W26419 Bucks Island Court, Pewaukee, WI 53072

Election Complaint to Challenge Nomination Papers
Before State of Wisconsin Government Accountability Board

The complaint of Timothy R. Dietrich, candidate, Wisconsin State Senate District #33, complainant, against Rich Zipperer, candidate, Wisconsin State Senate District #33 and the committee Citizens for Rich Zipperer, respondent.

I, Timothy R. Dietrich, allege that the nomination papers filed by the respondent, Rich Zipperer and the committee Citizens for Rich Zipperer, (86 pages, 800 signatures), are invalid because the nomination papers state the election is "the general election to be held on November 2nd, 2010", (see attached copy of GAB-152 receipt for nomination papers for election held on September 14th, 2010 and copy of nomination paper for Rich Zipperer). Mr. Zipperer circulated the wrong nomination papers. The people that signed the nomination papers believed they were signing papers for the general election and not the special partisan primary election held on September 14, 2010. The information provided on the nomination papers was most certainly insufficient, inaccurate and false.

This complaint is established under the following:

1. Wis. Stats 8.15(5)(a) Nominations for September primary.

Each nomination paper shall have substantially the following words printed at the top:

..... "be placed on the ballot at the (general or special) election to be held on (date of election)".....

2. EB-168 (Rev. 06/2008) Instructions for Preparing Nomination Papers for Partisan Office states:

Date of Election – Insert the date of the election. If the nomination paper is being circulated for a general election, the date is the Tuesday after the first Monday in November of an even-numbered year. If the election is a special partisan election, the date of the special election must be listed.

3. GAB 2.05(1) Treatment and sufficiency of nomination papers.

Each candidate for public office has the responsibility to assure that his or her nomination papers are prepared, circulated, signed, and filed in compliance with statutory and other legal requirements.

4. Government Accountability Board Notice of Election dated May 10, 2010, clearly lists two separate elections: Partisan Primary – September 14, 2010 and General Election – November 2, 2010.
5. Government Accountability Board website and calendar both state the election on 9/14/2010 is a Partisan Primary.

The original and a copy of this Election Complaint to Challenge Nomination Papers was sent by overnight UPS to the Government Accountability Board, Elections Division, 212 East Washington Avenue, 3rd floor, Madison, WI 53707-7984.

VERIFICATION

I, Timothy R. Dietrich, being first duly sworn, on oath, state that the allegations in this complaint to challenge nomination papers are true based on my personal knowledge.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARING NOMINATION PAPERS FOR PARTISAN OFFICE

This is a sample nomination paper form. It conforms to the statutory requirements for nomination papers for partisan office. All information concerning the candidate must be completed in full before circulating this form to obtain signatures of electors. All information concerning the signing electors and the circulator must be completed in full before filing with the appropriate filing officer. This form may be reproduced in any way. A candidate's picture and biographical data may also be added to this form. The Government Accountability Board has determined that no disclaimer or other attribution statement is required on nomination papers.

Candidate's Name - Insert the candidate's name. A candidate may use his or her full legal name, or any combination of first name, middle name, and initials or nickname with last name. The Government Accountability Board has determined that, absent any evidence of an attempt to manipulate the electoral process, candidates are permitted to choose any form of their name, including nicknames, by which they want to appear on the ballot.

No titles are permitted. In addition, names such as “Red” or “Skip” are permitted, but names which have an apparent electoral purpose or benefit, such as “Lower taxes,” “None of the above” or “Lower Spending” are not permitted. It is also not permissible to add nicknames in quotes or parentheses between first and last names. For example, John “Jack” Jones or John (Jack) Jones are not acceptable, but John Jones, Jack Jones or John Jack Jones are acceptable.

Candidate's Residence - If a candidate's municipality of residence is different from the municipality used for mailing purposes, both must be given. Indicate if the municipality of residence is a town, village, or city.

Date of Election - Insert the date of the election. If the nomination paper is being circulated for a general election, the date is the Tuesday after the first Monday in November of an even-numbered year. If the election is a special partisan election, the date of the special election must be listed.

Party or Statement of Principle – Insert the name of the party the candidate represents. Independent candidates may provide a Statement of Principle, not to exceed 5 words.

Title of Office - The name of the office must be listed along with the jurisdiction or district number that clearly identifies the office the candidate is seeking, for example, Representative to the Assembly – 1st district or Dane County District Attorney.

Name of Jurisdiction - The nomination papers must also indicate the municipality or jurisdiction in which the signing electors are qualified to vote, as it relates to the office sought by the candidate named on the nomination paper. For example, for a statewide office the jurisdiction is the State of Wisconsin. Other examples are 1st Congressional District, 24th Assembly District or Brown County.

Signatures of Electors - Only qualified electors of the jurisdiction or the district the candidate seeks to represent may sign the nomination papers. Each elector's municipality of residence must be listed on the nomination paper along with the mailing address, including any street, fire or rural route number, box number (if rural route) and street or road name. The Street & Number or Rural Route section for each elector's address is split into two lines. The first line is for the street address. The second line is for the municipality for mailing purposes. The Municipality of Residence listed for each signing elector must clearly identify the town, village or city where the elector's voting residence is located. A post office box number alone does not show where the elector actually resides. The date the elector signed the nomination paper, including month, day and year, must be indicated. Ditto marks that follow correct and complete address or date information are acceptable. The circulator may add any missing or illegible address or date information before the papers are filed with the filing officer.

Signature of Circulator - The circulator should carefully read the language of the Certification of Circulator. THE CIRCULATOR MUST PERSONALLY PRESENT THE NOMINATION PAPER TO EACH SIGNER. THE NOMINATION PAPER MAY NOT BE LEFT UNATTENDED ON COUNTERS OR POSTED ON BULLETIN BOARDS. The circulator's complete address (including municipality of residence) must be listed in the certification. After obtaining signatures of electors, the circulator must sign and date the certification.

Other Instructions - Candidates and circulators should review GAB 2.05, 2.07, Wis. Adm. Code.

- Nomination papers must be in the physical custody of the appropriate filing officer by the filing deadline. A postmark on the filing deadline is NOT sufficient. Nomination papers CANNOT be faxed to the filing officer.
- Nomination papers with the required number of signatures must be filed with the appropriate filing officer no later than 5:00 p.m. on the second Tuesday in July (or the next day if the second Tuesday is a holiday) before the general election. Special elections may have different filing deadlines. Check with the filing officer.
- In order for a candidate's name to be placed on the ballot, a candidate must file a Campaign Registration Statement (EB-1), a Declaration of Candidacy (EB-162), and Nomination Papers (EB-168) containing the appropriate number of signatures for the office sought no later than the filing deadline. §8.15(6), Wis. Stats. Candidates for state office and municipal judge must also file a statement of economic interests with the Government Accountability Board by the third business day after the nomination paper filing deadline. §19.43, Wis. Stats. If any one of these required forms is not filed by the deadline, the candidate's name will not be placed on the ballot. §8.30, Wis. Stats.
- If a candidate or circulator has any questions, he or she should contact the filing officer.

ELECTION RELATED PETITIONS

GAB 2.05 Treatment and sufficiency of nomination papers.
GAB 2.07 Challenges to nomination papers.

GAB 2.09 Treatment and sufficiency of election petitions.
GAB 2.11 Challenges to election petitions.

Note: Chapter EIBd 2 was renumbered chapter GAB 2 under s. 13.92 (4) (b) 1., Stats., and corrections made under s. 13.92 (4) (b) 2. and 7., Stats., Register April 2008 No. 628.

GAB 2.05 Treatment and sufficiency of nomination papers. (1) Each candidate for public office has the responsibility to assure that his or her nomination papers are prepared, circulated, signed, and filed in compliance with statutory and other legal requirements.

(2) In order to be timely filed, all nomination papers shall be in the physical possession of the filing officer by the statutory deadline. Each of the nomination papers shall be numbered, before they are filed, and the numbers shall be assigned sequentially, beginning with the number "1". Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the absence of a page number will not invalidate the signatures on that page.

(3) The filing officer shall review all nomination papers filed with it, up to the maximum number permitted, to determine the facial sufficiency of the papers filed. Where circumstances and the time for review permit, the filing officer may consult maps, directories and other extrinsic evidence to ascertain the correctness and sufficiency of information on a nomination paper.

(4) Any information which appears on a nomination paper is entitled to a presumption of validity. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, errors in information contained in a nomination paper, committed by either a signer or a circulator, may be corrected by an affidavit of the circulator, an affidavit of the candidate, or an affidavit of a person who signed the nomination paper. The person giving the correcting affidavit shall have personal knowledge of the correct information and the correcting affidavit shall be filed with the filing officer not later than three calendar days after the applicable statutory due date for the nomination papers.

(5) Where any required item of information on a nomination paper is incomplete, the filing officer shall accept the information as complete if there has been substantial compliance with the law.

(6) Nomination papers shall contain at least the minimum required number of signatures from the circuit, county, district or jurisdiction which the candidate seeks to represent.

(7) The filing officer shall accept nomination papers which contain biographical data or campaign advertising. The disclaimer specified in s. 11.30 (2), Stats., is not required on any nomination paper.

(8) An elector shall sign his or her own name unless unable to do so because of physical disability. An elector unable to sign because of physical disability shall be present when another person signs on behalf of the disabled elector and shall specifically authorize the signing.

(9) A person may not sign for his or her spouse, or for any other person, even when they have been given a power of attorney by that person, unless sub. (8) applies.

(10) The signature of a married woman shall be counted when she uses her husband's first name instead of her own.

(11) Only one signature per person for the same office is valid. Where an elector is entitled to vote for more than one candidate for the same office, a person may sign the nomination papers of as many candidates for the same office as the person is entitled to vote for at the election.

(12) A complete address, including municipality of residence for voting purposes, and the street and number, if any, of the residence, (or a postal address if it is located in the jurisdiction that the candidate seeks to represent), shall be listed for each signature on a nomination paper.

(13) A signature shall be counted when identical residential information or dates for different electors are indicated by ditto marks.

(14) No signature on a nomination paper shall be counted unless the elector who circulated the nomination paper completes and signs the certificate of circulator and does so after, not before, the paper is circulated. No signature may be counted when the residency of the circulator cannot be determined by the information given on the nomination paper.

(15) An individual signature on a nomination paper may not be counted when any of the following occur:

(a) The date of the signature is missing, unless the date can be determined by reference to the dates of other signatures on the paper.

(b) The signature is dated after the date of certification contained in the certificate of circulator.

(c) The address of the signer is missing or incomplete, unless residency can be determined by the information provided on the nomination paper.

(d) The signature is that of an individual who is not 18 years of age at the time the paper is signed. An individual who will not be 18 years of age until the subject election is not eligible to sign a nomination paper for that election.

(e) The signature is that of an individual who has been adjudicated not to be a qualified elector on the grounds of incompetency or limited competency as provided in s. 6.03 (3), Stats., or is that of an individual who was not, for any other reason, a qualified elector at the time of signing the nomination paper.

(16) After a nomination paper has been filed, no signature may be added or removed. After a nomination paper has been signed, but before it has been filed, a signature may be removed by the circulator. The death of a signer after a nomination paper has been signed does not invalidate the signature.

(17) This section is promulgated pursuant to the direction of s. 8.07, Stats., and is to be used by election officials in determining the validity of all nomination papers and the signatures on those papers.

History: Emerg. cr. 8-9-74; cr. Register, November, 1974, No. 227, eff. 12-1-74; emerg. r. and recr. eff. 12-16-81; emerg. r. and recr. eff. 6-1-84; cr. GAB 2.07 Challenges to nomination papers. (1) The board shall review any verified complaint concerning the sufficiency of nomination papers of a candidate for state office that is filed with the board under ss. 5.05 and 5.06, Stats.; and the local filing officer shall review any verified complaint concerning the sufficiency of nomination papers of a candidate for local office that is filed with the local filing officer under s. 8.07, Stats. The filing officer shall apply the standards in s. GAB 2.05 to determine the sufficiency of nomination papers, including consulting extrinsic sources of evidence under s. GAB 2.05 (3).
