This complaint is made under Wisconsin Statutes § 5.06.

I, Walter S. Jankowski, Jr., as guardian on behalf of ward and complainant Walter S. Jankowski II, allege, based on personal knowledge or upon information and belief, complain that:

Parties

1. Complainant Walter S. Jankowski II is a resident of Dane County, Wisconsin. He resides at the adult residential care facility, Waunakee Manor, 801 S. Klein Drive, in Waunakee, Wisconsin. Walter S. Jankowski, Jr. is the guardian of ward Walter S. Jankowski II.

2. Walter S. Jankowski, Jr. is also a resident of Dane County. He resides at 101 8th Street, Waunakee 53597. Walter S. Jankowski, Jr. is the guardian of ward Walter S. Jankowski II.

3. Respondent Meagan Wolfe is Administrator of the Wisconsin Elections Commission. The WEC is responsible for Wisvote. WisVote is the statewide election management and voter registration system. In 2016, WisVote replaced the Statewide Voter Registration System (SVRS), which was created in 2006 as required by the federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA).

4. Respondent Karla Endres is the City Clerk of Waunakee. As the City Clerk, Karla Endres is responsible for and oversees the administration of elections within Waunakee. The Clerk's office is responsible for voting and recording absentee ballots.

5. Respondent Carlo Esqueda is Dane County Circuit Court Clerk. The Clerk of Court is responsible to ensure guardianship and other orders that expressly state a person does not have the capacity to vote, are forwarded to the municipal clerk and the Wisconsin Elections Commission with a completed Notice of Eligibility form, identifying the person as "not competent to exercise the right to register to vote or to vote in an election."

Statement of Facts

Family Background and Residence

6. I am a child of my father Walter S. Jankowski II.

7. Walter S. Jankowski II has had cognitive deficits since the 1970's. Walter S. Jankowski II lives in an adult residential care facility, Waunakee Manor, Waunakee, Dane County, Wisconsin.

I. Dane County Circuit Court Guardianship Order filed in 1978—not competent to register to vote or to vote in an election.

8. My mother in or about 1978 petitioned that the Dane County Circuit Court appoint me as my father's guardian because of his incapacity.

9. My father had a brain injury which was not helped by an unsuccessful brain surgery in Canada.

10. In or about 1978, a court hearing was held on the guardianship petition in Dane County Circuit.

11. On March 30, 1978, the Dane County Circuit Court issued to me letters of guardianship appointing me as a guardian and making my father a ward without the right to vote. See Exhibit A.

II. Someone completed an absentee ballot for Walter S. Jankowski II for the November 3, 2020 election, despite the guardianship order.

12. I called the then Waunakee clerk Caitlin Stene told me that since no one in nursing homes has an ID, they aren't required all they have to give is consent they want their vote cast and the aide fills out the ballot seals it and gets it in. He asked her how his dad gives consent since he doesn't speak or write and she said pointing is acceptable or an eye wink would be ok as well. He asked her why they didn't ask the legal guardians or family and she had no answer. He also pointed out that from April to at least November 2020 he was unable to visit his father. 3 women that "did all the ballots for the residents at {Waunakee} Manor" told him they didn't know if they did his father's ballot but she expected he'd want to vote the way Wally did.

13. Walter S. Jankowski II hasn't voted since 1972 because of his severe cognitive deficits.

14. At some point, I checked myvote website.

15. The Wisvote records indicated that Walter S. Jankowski II had requested an absentee ballot and voted in the November 3, 2020 election. See Exhibits B and C.

16. This was the first time my father had voted in 48 years—first time since 1972.

17. I could not understand why the WisVote voting records would have indicated that my father had voted in the November 2020 election. Neither I nor any other member of my immediate family completed an absentee ballot for my mother.

18. The fact that the WisVote records indicated that my father voted in the November 3, 2020 election is contrary to the Dane County Circuit Court order establishing the guardianship.

19. After the November 3, 2020 election, I discussed the matter with the then City of Waunakee Clerk Caitlin Stene.

20. Stene told me that since no one in nursing homes has an identification card, all that is required for a nursing home resident to give consent is a desire to want their vote cast. If so, the nursing home aide fills out the ballot, seals it and gets it in.

21. I asked Stene how my dad gave consent since he doesn't speak or write.

22. Stene responded that pointing is acceptable; an eye wink would be ok as well.

23. I asked Stene why they didn't ask the legal guardians or family.

24. Stene provided no answer.

25. I also pointed out that from April to at least November 2020 I was unable to visit his father.

26. Stene responded that 3 women that "did all the ballots for the residents at {Waunakee} Manor." Stene told me they didn't know if they did my father's ballot but she expected he'd want to vote the way Wally did.

27. Stene told me she couldn't send me a copy of Walter S. Jankowski's ballot because they are all mixed in.

III. WisVote records show that Walter S. Jankowski II is registered and active to vote.

28. On March 30, 2022, I checked Wisvote voting records to see if my father is registered and active to vote.

29. The WisVote voting records indicate for Walter S. Jankowski II the following:
"Status: You are Registered to Vote." See Ex. D.

30. The WisVote voting records indicate that Walter S. Jankowski II has requested and has been sent an absentee ballot for the April 5, 2022 election. Exs. D, E

31. I could not explain why the Wisvote voting records would have indicated that my father had voted in the November 2020 election and why my father was sent an absentee ballot for the April 2022 election. Neither I nor any other member of my immediate family completed an absentee ballot for my father.

IV. Videotaped interview of Jankowski on December 17, 2021, has been conducted to confirm his incapacity to vote.

32. Attorney Erick Kaardal conducted a videotaped interview of Walter S. Jankowski II at 2 p.m. on December 17, 2021, to test his capacity to vote.

33. Kaardal used a Competency Assessment Tool for Voting (CAT-V) in interviewing Walter S. Jankowski II.

34. Walter S. Jankowski Jr. in responding to the CATV failed to show a capacity to vote.

35. I have attached a video tape recording of this December 17, 2021 interview of Walter S. Jankowski II as Exhibit F of my father showing his incapacity to vote.

36. The videotaped interview confirmed that Walter S. Jankowski II does not have the capacity to vote.

V. Wisconsin's circuit court clerks are required to send the "no vote" guardianship orders to municipal clerks, and notice, via probate registers, to the WEC.

37. Once the court determines a person is not competent to exercise the right to register to vote or to vote in an election, Wisconsin Statutes § 54.25(2)(c)(1)(g) states that Wisconsin's circuit court clerks are required to send a notice or the "no vote" guardianship order to "election officials or agency" for the purpose of preventing the ward from registering to vote and from voting, here, the municipal clerk:

g. The determination of the court shall be communicated in writing by the clerk of court to the election official or agency charged under s. 6.48, 6.92, 6.925, 6.93, or 7.52 (5) with the responsibility for determining challenges to registration and voting that may be directed against that elector. The determination may be reviewed as provided in s. 54.64 (2) and any subsequent determination of the court shall be likewise communicated by the clerk of court. . . .

38. Under current court procedures, the Register in Probate or the Clerk of Court or both, after a “no vote” guardianship order is issued, is to provide directly to the WEC a Notice of Voting Eligibility (circuit court form GN-3180 (CCAP)). See e.g., Exhibit G.

39. The Register in Probate is within the administration of the clerk’s office. The Clerk of Court is responsible for the management of the Register in Probate as it relates to court orders affecting a person’s right to vote.

40. Upon information and belief, the Circuit Court Clerk or the Register in Probate or both under current court procedures, does not deliver the Notice of Voting Eligibility to the WEC. Otherwise, there is no other explanation why Walter S. Jankowski II remains on the WisVote as registered to vote, and is provided with an absentee ballot where it is also presumed the vote is counted.

41. Upon information and belief, the Circuit Court Clerk did not deliver to the municipal clerk where the ward resides, here, City of Waunakee, as found under Wisconsin Statutes § 54.25(2)(c)(1)(g) or other election law authority. Otherwise, there is no other explanation why Walter S. Jankowski II remains on the WisVote as registered to vote, and is provided with an absentee ballot where it is also presumed the vote is counted.

VI. The Wisconsin Elections Commission administers the WisVote to accurately reflect registered voters and those who are either eligible or ineligible to vote, which is relied upon by municipal clerks.

WEC’s inaccurate data allows ineligible voters to vote.

42. The Wisconsin Elections Commission and municipal clerks administer the Wisvote database. Each have a role; for instance, municipal clerks will enter data regarding newly registered voters, maintain or update voter addresses, or other similar responsibilities. The WEC has similar responsibilities, including but not limited to, for example, identifying voters who are no longer eligible to vote as informed by circuit courts. Either Wisvote or the municipal clerk or both have a continuing obligation to account for people who are ineligible to vote.

43. The WEC and municipal clerks, including the City of Waunakee Clerk, do not and have not accurately recorded “no vote” guardianship orders in the WisVote database for the purpose of preventing ineligible wards from registering to vote and from voting. An example is Walter S. Jankowski II. Otherwise, there is no other explanation why Jankowski remains on the WisVote as registered to vote, and is provided with an absentee ballot where it is also presumed the vote is counted.

44. Moreover, Jankowski’s guardianship order was issued in 1978. The WEC, its predecessor, or the municipal clerk or both, have not processed the guardianship order in over 40 years.

45. The over forty year delay in processing a guardianship order finding a person not competent to exercise the right to register to vote or to vote in an election is inexcusable. It is presumed, that what has occurred in the case of Walter S. Jankowski II’s guardianship order has occurred repeatedly to others similarly situated.

46. The Wisconsin Elections Commission and municipal clerks failed accurately to record all “no vote” guardianship orders in the Wisvote database for the purpose of preventing ineligible wards from registering to vote and from voting in the November 3, 2020 election. An example is Walter S. Jankowski II. Otherwise, there is no other explanation why Jankowski remains on the WisVote database as registered to vote, and was provided with an absentee ballot where it is presumed that “his” absentee ballot be counted as a vote in the November 2020 election.

47. The presumed failures of the WEC, the Clerk of Court, and municipal clerks regarding guardianship orders that expressly identify a person not competent to exercise the right to register or to vote is presumed to be greater than just the example of Jankowski.

48. The WisVote database has a data field for ineligible “incompetent.” “Incompetent” is the word the Wisconsin Elections Commission chose as an indicator of ineligibility.

49. The WisVote database as of November 13, 2020, has only 802 total “incompetents” listed.

50. The Wisconsin Elections Commission does not maintain a list of “incompetents” to prevent same day registration and voting.

51. So, according to WisVote only 802 people in Wisconsin are ineligible to vote as “incompetent.”

52. But, upon reviewing the county-by-county information, this number should be much higher, perhaps 5,000 or more incompetents should be listed in WisVote or on a Wisconsin Elections Commission list to prevent same day registration and voting.

53. For example, based on the WisVote database as of November 13, 2020, LaCrosse County has 1 incompetent for every 1,980 residents; Vilas County has 1 incompetent for every 1,213; and Shawano County has 1 incompetent for every 1,363 residents.

54. But, to the contrary, the following 12 counties have zero people listed as incompetent ineligible to vote in the WisVote database: Ashland, Barron, Buffalo, Door, Florence, Iron, Marquette, Menominee, Pepin, Rusk, Taylor, and Vernon.

55. Also, to the contrary, the city of Milwaukee with an estimated population of 594,548 (2019) had only one person listed as incompetent ineligible to vote in the WisVote database.

56. The LaCrosse County Probate Register Nicole Schroeder has stated that the Wisconsin Elections Commission is not entering all the “no vote” guardianship orders she is sending to the Wisconsin Elections Commission.

57. Additionally, Walter S. Jankowski II is not in the 802 total WisVote database as incompetent ineligible to vote, but rather has a status of registered, active voter.

58. Additionally, Sandra Klitzke of Outagamie County, who is under a “no vote” guardianship order is not in the 802 total WisVote database as incompetent ineligible to vote, but rather has a status of registered, active voter.

59. Below is the county-by-county breakdown for the 802 incompetent ineligible to vote persons in the WisVote data base as of November 13, 2020:

County	No. of incompetents ineligible to vote

60. In conclusion, the Wisconsin Elections Commission and municipal clerks who administer the WisVote database, do not timely and accurately record all “no vote” guardianship orders in the WisVote database for the purpose of preventing ineligible wards from registering to vote and from voting.

61. WEC Commissioner Meagan Wolfe in her February 16, 2022 statements to the General Assembly Committee on Elections and Campaigns admitted that Wisconsin’s system of recording guardianship orders in the WisVote database to prevent ineligible wards from voting is “not as quick” as it should be. See Wisconsin Eye, General Assembly Committee on Elections and Campaigns (Feb. 16, 2022 (starting at 1:45)).

62. In the case of Walter J. Jankowski II, over 40 years have passed since the guardianship order; so, WEC, its predecessors and the municipal clerks have not been “quick” in entering the information into the WisVote database.

Count

The respondent public officials violated state law because, Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated, under a guardianship order finding him not competent, are registered to vote and received absentee ballots in the November 2020 and for the April 2022 election; Walter S. Jankowski II voted in the November 2020 election.

Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated remain registered to vote and eligible to receive absentee ballots.

63. According to the Wisvote User Manual (December 2020 edition), section 2.6, WEC is to maintain an accurate, complete, online, searchable “Incompetent List” which would include wards under “no vote” guardianship orders for use by the municipal clerk to render these persons in the Wisvote database ineligible to register or vote. Section 2.6 states:

2.6 Adjudicated Incompetents

The Incompetent List is an online searchable database of all persons adjudicated incompetent in your Jurisdiction. These persons are ineligible to vote or register to vote pursuant to Wisconsin Statutes if the court as remove their right to vote as part of the determination. This database also contains the records for persons adjudicated incompetent who have subsequently had their right to vote restored. The Persons Adjudicated Incompetent List is organized by created date, last name, first name, middle initial, address, date of birth, the incompetent date and date restored (if any) and the court that made the determination. You may notice a few cases of what appears to be duplicate entries. This can happen when the person may be maintaining a residential address but is also a resident of a retirement or nursing home that may be in a different municipality than the residential address.

You should review this list periodically to determine if a person currently registered is ineligible to vote.

64. Wisconsin Statutes § 54.25(2)(c)(1)(g) states that Wisconsin’s circuit court clerks are required to send the “no vote” guardianship orders to “election officials or agency” for the purpose of preventing the ward from registering to vote and from voting:

The determination of the court shall be communicated in writing by the clerk of court to the election official or agency charged under s. 6.48, 6.92, 6.925, 6.93, or 7.52 (5) with the responsibility for determining challenges to registration and voting that may be directed against that elector. The determination may be reviewed as provided in s. 54.64 (2) and any subsequent determination of the court shall be likewise communicated by the clerk of court.

(Emphasis added.)

65. The purpose of the communication from Wisconsin’s circuit court clerk to “election officials or agency” is for the purpose of preventing the ward from registering to vote and from voting—essentially to enforce the circuit court order.

66. Under current court procedures, the Register in Probate or the Clerk of Court or both, after a “no vote” guardianship order is issued, is to provide directly to the WEC a Notice of Voting Eligibility (circuit court form GN-3180 (CCAP)). See e.g., Exhibit G.

67. The Register in Probate is within the administration of the clerk’s office. The Clerk of Court is responsible for the management of the Register in Probate as it relates to court orders affecting a person’s right to vote.

68. Upon information and belief, the Circuit Court Clerk or the Register in Probate or both under current court procedures, does not deliver the Notice of Voting Eligibility to the WEC. Otherwise, there is no other explanation why Jankowski remains on the WisVote as registered to vote, and is provided with an absentee ballot where it is also presumed the vote is counted.

69. Upon information and belief, the Circuit Court Clerk does not deliver the Notice of Voting Eligibility to the municipal clerk where the ward resides, here, the City of Waunakee, as found under Wisconsin Statutes § 54.25(2)(c)(1)(g) or other election law authority. Otherwise, there is no other explanation why Walter S. Jankowski II remains on the WisVote as registered to vote, and is provided with an absentee ballot where it is also presumed the vote is counted.

70. In turn, the WEC, by the responsibility of the WEC Administrator, Meagan Wolfe, and by the responsibility of the Waunakee City Clerk, failed to update the WisVote database to ensure Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated did not register to vote and did not vote.

71. But for the inaction of respondent public officials, the WisVote database would have shown prior to the November 3, 2020 election that Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated were “incompetent”—thus ineligible to register to vote or to vote.

72. As a consequence of the respondent public officials’ inactions, Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated voted in the November 3, 2020 election even though they were ineligible to vote. Wis. Stat. § 6.03(1).

73. As a consequence of the respondent public officials’ inactions, Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated are still registered, active and eligible to vote in future elections.

74. As a consequence of the respondent public officials’ inactions, Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated are being mailed out absentee ballots for the April 5, 2022 election even though they are ineligible to vote.

75. As a consequence of the respondent officials' actions, omissions, or inactions, they have abused their discretion, violated state law, and violated circuit court "no vote" guardianship orders.

76. The respondents failed to accurately include or update in the WisVote database Walter S. Jankowski II's circuit court orders expressly stating he and others similarly situated are not competent to register to vote or to vote in an election. See Wis. Stat. § 6.03(1).

77. As a result of the violations of law, the respondent election officials were responsible for ineligible voters obtaining absentee ballots and presumably allowing for those votes to be counted in the November 2020 election.

78. These same ineligible voters remain registered to vote in the April 2022 election and future elections.

Prayer for relief

WHEREFORE, Complainants respectfully request the Commission:

- To investigate the circumstances and factual allegations asserted in this Complaint regarding the legality of the above-named Respondents' acts, omissions, or inactions.
- To adjudicate that the above-named respondents, in their respective capacities as election officials, abused their discretion by violating state law and circuit court orders' voting restrictions on Walter S. Jankowski II and others similarly situated.
- To issue an appropriate administrative correction or other remedy under Wisconsin Statutes § 5.06 and any other administrative relief deemed appropriate.
