WISCONSIN ELECTIONS COMMISSION

JAY STONE,

COMPLAINANT,

v.

Angela Sharpe,

RESPONDENT.

VERIFIED 5.06 COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

Complainant Jay Stone alleges Wisconsin Elections Commission (WEC) Staff Attorney Angela Sharpe intentionally delayed the noticing of his Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] for seven weeks. There are too many Sharpe contradictions, changes in story, and omissions for the seven week delay to be simple mistakes. Some of Sharpe's abuse of her election official discretion are as follows:

- Sharpe conveniently forgot to tell complainant that she did not receive his refiling of his complaint for several weeks. (Exhibit 7)
- Sharpe blamed Complainant for not refiling his complaint though it was untrue.
- Sharpe falsely claimed the Complainant's file size of his complaint as the potential reason the WEC did not receive his complaint (Exhibit 8)
- Sharpe said that after checking the WEC system she could not find Complainant's [REDACTED] complaint. (Exhibit 8)
- After Complainant provided proof of him refiling his [REDACTED] complaint, Sharpe admitted the system received his complaint on the August 3, 2024 date as the complainant stated. (Exhibit 8)

- Sharpe said we were not able to confirm what happened to Complainant’s August 3, 2024 complaint after he filed it. (Exhibit 8)
- After Complainant said he may file a WEC complaint, Sharpe acknowledged that the Complainant submitted his complaint when he said he did.
- Sharpe blamed the seven week delay on the legal team not receiving Complainant’s complaint on August 3, 2024. (Exhibit 8)

The timeline below outlines how Sharpe abused her election official discretion and power. The timeline also includes Sharpe’s contradictions and false claims.

Timeline of the Angela Sharpe’s Abuse of Discretion

Date	Event or Comment
July 23, 2024	Stone files Jay Stone v. ██████████ WEC complaint. (Exhibit 1)
July 26, 2024	Sharpe confirms receipt of Stone v. ██████████ complaint. Sharpe said notices to respondents were sent via mail. (Exhibit 1)
July 29, 2024	Stone files Jay Stone v. ██████████ (Exhibit 2)
August 2, 2024	Sharpe said FedEx could not deliver the ██████████ complaint with the address Stone provided. Sharpe said she would not try to deliver the ██████████ complaint because it has the same address as the ██████████ complaint. (Exhibit 3)
Comment	Sharpe’s July 26 and August 2 emails contradict each other. In Sharpe’s July 26 email she said she sent the ██████████ complaint via mail (Exhibit 1). In Sharpe’s August 2 email she said FedEx was unable to deliver the ██████████ complaint (Exhibit 3).
August 3, 2024	Stone filed an open records request for the FedEx undeliverable ██████████ complaint documents. (Exhibit 4)
August 3, 2024	Stone refiled his ██████████ complaint. (Exhibit 5)
August 3, 2024	Stone refiled his ██████████ complaint. (Exhibit 6)
August 13, 2024	Sharpe confirms receipt of the ██████████ complaint and said the respondents were noticed on August 9. (Exhibit 5)

Date	Event or Comment
August 13, 2024	Sharpe email states that because of an ongoing WEC investigation, WEC cannot provide the FedEx undeliverable [REDACTED] complaint documents that Stone requested. (Exhibit 4)
September 23, 2024	Sharpe writes, "I apologize for the delay in response, I thought I had responded to this message at the time. ... You did not resubmit a new, sworn 5.05 complaint against [REDACTED]. If you would like the Commission to consider that complaint, please submit a new, sworn version with new notice address/contact information, the way you did with your second [REDACTED] complaint." (Exhibit 7)
September 23, 2024	Stone denies Sharpe's accusation that he did not resubmit his [REDACTED] Complaint. (Exhibit 8)
September 26, 2024	Sharpe confirms receipt of Stone's [REDACTED] complaint 7 weeks after he initially filed it. (Exhibit 8)
September 26, 2024 (8:59 AM)	Sharpe writes, "I checked through our system, and don't see that we ever received your email on 8/3/24. Maybe the size of the files prevented it from successfully entering our system at that time. (Exhibit 8)
September 26, 2024 (10:59 AM)	After Stone provided proof of his [REDACTED] complaint submission to the WEC, Sharpe writes, "We looked into this matter, and it appears that while your 9:42 a.m. email from August 3 was received by our server on the backend, our Legal team never received it on the front end until you resent it this week. We were unable to locate it in our messaging system, and were also unable to confirm what happened to it." (Exhibit 8)
Comment	Sharpe's September 26, 8:59 AM email contradicts what she wrote in her September 26, 10:59 AM email. (Exhibit 8) At 8:59 AM Sharpe said, "'I checked through our system, and don't see that we ever received your email on 8/3/24.'" At 10:59 AM, Sharpe writes, "We looked into this matter, and it appears that while your 9:42 a.m. email from August 3 was received by our server on the backend, our Legal team never received it on the front end until you resent it this week."

SHARPE'S ALLEGED MISCONDUCT DESERVES A WEC INVESTIGATION

1. Sharpe claimed that the legal team did not receive his WEC complaint on August 3, 2024.

Sharpe's dubious statements raise more questions that demand answers:

- When did the legal team receive the Complainant's August 3, 2024 complaint? If the legal team did receive Complainant's August 3, 2024 complaint on August 3, 2024, then Sharpe lied and intentionally delayed the notification of the Complainant's Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] respondents for seven weeks.
 - Who is responsible for notifying the legal team of a WEC complaint submission? The person responsible for notifying the legal team of a WEC complaint can answer questions and provide additional information about the Complainant's August 3, 2024 complaint.
 - If the legal team wasn't notified of Complainant's August 3, 2024 complaint on August 3, 2024, why wasn't the legal team notified?
 - Why did Sharpe wait seven weeks to notify Complainant that she did not receive his refiled [REDACTED] complaint? What changed for Sharpe that she suddenly contacts Complainant to tell him he did not resubmit his [REDACTED] complaint?
2. Sharpe contradicted herself when she said the Complainant's [REDACTED] complaint was both mailed and sent by FedEx.
 - How did Sharpe attempt to notify the [REDACTED] complaint respondents? Complainant filed an open records request for the receipt of the attempted delivery.
 - Has the WEC retained a copy of FedEx's unsuccessful delivery notice?
 - What is written on the unsuccessful FedEx delivery notice?
 3. Sharpe conveniently said she forgot about the Complainant's complaint for several weeks.

- Did Sharpe use the WEC’s complaint tracking software?
- If Sharpe did not use the WEC’s complaint tracking software, why didn’t she use it?
- If Sharpe did use the WEC’s complaint tracking software, what information about Sharpe and the Complainant’s [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] complaints are on the WEC’s complaint tracking software?

Wherefore the complainant asks the Commission to Order the following:

A. An investigation of Angela’s Sharpe’s handling of the Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] and Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] WEC complaints.

B. Because of the impending November 5, 2024 election, Complainant requests expedited hearings for both the Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] and Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] WEC complaints.

C. If the Commission determines Angela Sharpe mishandled or misrepresented the processing of the Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] or Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] WEC complaints, the Complainant requests that the WEC discipline Angela Sharpe up to and including termination.

Exhibits

1. Complainant’s July 23, 2024 email submission of his Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint.
2. Complainant’s July 23, 2024 email submission of his Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint.
3. Angela Sharpe’s August 2, 2024 email stating that FedEx could not deliver the Stone v. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] complaint.
4. Complainant’s open records request for the FedEx Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint undeliverable notice
5. Complainant’s August 3, 2024 email to refile his Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint.

6. Complainant's August 3, 2024 email to refile his Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint.
7. Angela Sharpe's September 23, 2024 email stating she forgot to notify Complainant that she did not receive his refiled [REDACTED] complaint.
8. Complainant's September 23, 2024 email with proof of him refiling his [REDACTED] complaint and Angela Sharpe's responses.

Good Morning Angela,

Can you email me the EL 24-? complaint number if possible.

I request an expedited hearing of my complaint because the alleged violations will impact the November 5, 2024 elections. There is precedent for an expedited WEC complaint review. The Commission voted to approve a motion for the expedited processing of a WEC complaint at its August 3, 2022 commissioners' meeting.

May you have a good Monday and a good week.

Angela Sharpe (Wisconsin Elections Commission)

Dear Mr. Stone:

I am reaching out about the two most recent 5.05 complaints that you filed:

- Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] (EL 24-73)
- Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] (EL 24-77)

For both complaints, you provided the same address for all identified Respondents: [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] For EL 73-24, the Commission sent a notice letter and a copy of that complaint on Friday, July 26, with a requested delivery of Saturday, July 30. From July 30 to August 1, the carrier, FedEx, attempted to deliver the notice package to that address every day, but were unsuccessful. Finally, FedEx alerted us this morning that the package could not be delivered to that address.

For EL 24-73, even though the complaint was initially accepted, it must be properly noticed before it can proceed. You must provide an address where the Respondents can receive notice of the allegations against them.

For EL 24-77, I cannot accept the complaint as filed because it contains the same undeliverable address as EL 24-73. If you are able to provide an address where the Respondents can receive notice of the allegations against them, please refile your complaint.

Please let me know if you have questions or would like to discuss.

Dear Mr. Stone:

I hope you had a good weekend, and I apologize for the delay in response, I thought I had responded to this message at the time.

By my records, you resubmitted your 5.05 complaint against [REDACTED] with a new notice address, which we noticed and was received by [REDACTED]. You did not resubmit a new, sworn 5.05 complaint against [REDACTED]. If you would like the Commission to consider that complaint, please submit a new, sworn version with new notice address/contact information, the way you did with your second [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] complaint.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Angela Sharpe (Wisconsin Elections Commission)

Dear Mr. Stone:

The Wisconsin Elections Commission ("the Commission") acknowledged your public records request on August 5, 2024. You sought the receipts, notices, communications for the unsuccessful 2024 FedEx delivery of the Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] and Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] complaints.

First, there are no responsive records for the Jay Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint. As I informed you, we were not able to notice that complaint because it contained the same undeliverable address as your first Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint.

Second, there are responsive records for your first Stone v. [REDACTED] complaint, but state law directs me to withhold those records pursuant to Wis. Stat. 5.05(5s). Specifically, that provision states that "[r]ecords obtained or prepared by the commission in connection with an investigation, including the full text of any complaint received by the commission, are not subject to the right of inspection and copying under s. 19.35(1)," subject to enumerated exceptions. The records you seek constitute records "obtained or prepared by the commission in connection with" your complaint. The records you seek do not fall within any of the exceptions listed in Wis. Stat. 5.05(5s)(a) - (f), so I am not able to release them as public records.

To the extent that this response denies any part of your public records request, the WEC's determination is subject to review in an action for mandamus under Wis. Stat. § 19.37(1), or by application to a district attorney or the Attorney General.

Best,

Angela O'Brien Sharpe

Finally, FedEx alerted us this morning that the package could not be delivered to that address.

For EL 24-73, even though the complaint was initially accepted, it must be properly noticed before it can proceed. You must provide an address where the Respondents can receive notice of the allegations against them.

For EL 24-77, I cannot accept the complaint as filed because it contains the same undeliverable address as EL 24-73. If you are able to provide an address where the Respondents can receive notice of the allegations against them, please refile your complaint.

Please let me know if you have questions or would like to discuss.

Best,

Angela O'Brien Sharpe

Hi Angela,

Thank you for your attempts to mail the respondents of my complaint. Did FED Ex give you a reason why it could not deliver to that address? The addresses that I gave you were from IRS Form 990.

[REDACTED] address and phone number are as follows: [REDACTED] [REDACTED] to verify that I am providing you with the correct address and phone number for [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] address and phone number are [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and scroll to the bottom of the page to verify that I am providing you with the correct address and
phone number for [REDACTED]

Since I previously filed complaints against [REDACTED], I assume you still have their attorneys' contact information. I can provide you with their attorneys' contact information if necessary.

[REDACTED] attached. I do not want to amend my complaint because I want to avoid further delay.

I assume you'll read this on Monday. I hope you enjoyed your weekend.

Positive Regards,

Jay Stone

Dear Mr. Stone:

I hope you had a good weekend, and I apologize for the delay in response, I thought I had responded to this message at the time.

By my records, you resubmitted your 5.05 complaint against [REDACTED] with a new notice
address, which we noticed and was received by [REDACTED]. You did not resubmit a new, sworn 5.05 complaint against [REDACTED]. If you would like the Commission to consider that complaint, please submit a new, sworn version with new notice address/contact information, the way you did with your second [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] complaint.

Please let me know if you have questions.

Best,

Angela

Hi Jay:

Thank you so much for sending this again. I checked through our system, and don't see that we ever received your email on 8/3/24. Maybe the size of the files prevented it from successfully entering our system at that time.

Either way, I'm confirming receipt of the complaint and exhibits now, with the new address and contact information, and will get it noticed today.

Thank you!

Angela

Angela,

Please provide me with proof my 8/3/24 complaint wasn't in the WEC system. If not, I am filing another WEC complaint for how you allegedly and deliberately mishandled my [REDACTED] WEC complaint.

Hi Jay:

We looked into this matter, and it appears that while your 9:42 a.m. email from August 3 was received by our server on the backend, our Legal team never received it on the front end until you resent it this week. We were unable to locate it in our messaging system, and were also unable to confirm what happened to it.

I did not deliberately mishandle your complaint. We apologize for whatever technical error prevented our legal team from receiving your complaint when it was first sent. Now that I have a copy of your complaint, I can accept it and notice it.

Best,

Angela
