Re: Complaint Filed with Wisconsin Elections Commission
Jay Stone v. Angela Sharpe (EL 24–101)

Dear Mr. Stone,

This communication is to inform you that the verified complaint you submitted which names a Wisconsin Elections Commission staff member as the Respondents is being disposed of without consideration by the Commission. It is the position of the Commission that a complaint against the Commission, against Commissioners in their official capacities, or against Commission staff, including the Administrator, warrants an ethical recusal by the body. The Commission's position reflects the need to avoid conflicts associated with an adjudicative body deciding a matter brought against itself, similar to the provisions of law and ethics precluding a judge from presiding over a case filed against herself, or someone with personal or professional ties to her.

Additionally, the lead opinion of the Wisconsin Supreme Court in Teigen et al v. Wisconsin Elections Commission et al, stated that "it would be nonsensical to have WEC adjudicate a claim against itself under § 5.06(1)." 2022 WI 64, 33, 403 Wis. 2d 607, 976 N.W.2d 519, overruled in part on other grounds by Priorities USA v. Wis. Elections Comm'n, 2024 WI 32. Justice Hagedorn's concurrence further stated that "the better reading is that the § 5.06 complaint process does not apply to complaints against acts of WEC as a body." Id. ¶169.

Accordingly, the Commission is disposing of this complaint without consideration under Wis. Stat. § 5.06(2).

Please feel free to contact me if you have any additional questions regarding this complaint.

Sincerely,

Brandon Hunzicker
Staff Attorney
