

WISCONSIN ELECTIONS COMMISSION

Michael Nedvidek,

Case No: EL 24-120

Complainant,

v.

Michelle Nelson et al.,

Respondents.

RESPONSE OF CITY OF KENOSHA CLERK/TREASURER MICHELLE NELSON AND DEPUTY CLERK/TREASURER CHRISTINA OPPENNEER

Now come the Respondents, Kenosha City Clerk/Treasurer Michelle Nelson and Deputy Clerk/Treasurer Christina Oppeneer, by their attorneys in the Kenosha City Attorney's Office, to submit this Response to the Complaint of Mr. Michael Nedvidek.

INTRODUCTION

The Complaint initially asked the Commission to do something that no published court case has ever done: find a violation of Wis. Stat. § 5.84. Now, the Complainant is asking the Commission to dismiss this matter. The Respondents join this request, and further assert that the allegations do not amount to any unlawful conduct.

ARGUMENT

I. The Commission should dismiss the Complaint because the Complainant is not seeking to proceed.

The Complainant, Mr. Nedvidek, contacted the Commission and asked to withdraw his allegations. See Email Regarding Complaint Withdrawal. Since nobody is complaining about the Respondents' conduct, the Complaint should be dismissed.

II. The Complaint's allegations are moot.

Mootness is a doctrine of restraint. Matter of D.K., 2020 WI 8, ¶ 19, 390 Wis. 2d 50, 63–64, 937 N.W.2d 901, 907. “An issue is moot when its resolution will have no practical effect on the underlying controversy.” Matter of Commitment of J.W.K., 2019 WI 54, ¶ 1, 386 Wis. 2d 672, 678, 927 N.W.2d 509, 513. Adjudicatory bodies should determine whether a controversy is moot prior to addressing the substantive issues of the case. See Matter of Commitment of J.W.K., 2019 WI 54, ¶¶ 10-11, 386 Wis. 2d 672, 682–83, 927 N.W.2d 509, 515.

The Complaint requests relief in the form of an order that would prospectively impact the general election; since the election is over, the Complaint is moot. The Complaint asks for an order saying that the automatic tabulating equipment “cannot be used in the Nov.5th (sic) election.” Complaint at 6. It is now into December. Thus, the matter is moot.

III. The Commission lacks jurisdiction over the Complaint since it fails to show probable cause of a violation.

The Commission lacks jurisdiction over the Complaint, and must dismiss it. Unlike circuit courts, government agencies have only those powers expressly granted to them or necessarily implied by statute. Compare Vill. of Trempealeau v. Mikrut, 2004 WI 79, ¶¶ 1-2, 273 Wis. 2d 76, 82, 681 N.W.2d 190, 192–93 (circuit court jurisdiction), Racine Fire & Police Comm'n v. Stanfield, 70 Wis. 2d 395, 399, 234 N.W.2d 307, 309 (1975) (agency authority). Though it is courts that primarily adjudicate disputes, statutes grant authority for some agencies to do so under limited circumstances. Here, the Commission may only adjudicate complaints that show probable cause of a violation. Wis. Stat. § 5.06(1); Wis. Admin. Code §§ EL 20.04(1), (2), (3), (6). Because the Complaint fails to do so, the Commission must dismiss it.

There are two types of tests that must be performed on automatic tabulating equipment, a pre-election day test pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1), and an election day test pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 5.84(2). Wisconsin Elections Commission, Election Administration Manual for Wisconsin Municipal Clerks 143 (Aug. 2024) (pre-election day test); Wisconsin Elections Commission, Election Day Manual for Wisconsin Election Officials 23 (Aug. 2024) (election day test). The Complaint alleges violations of both testing requirements, but fails to show probable cause that either were actually violated.

A. The Complaint lacks probable cause to show an improper election day test.

Though the Complaint cites the election day testing statute, it fails to include allegations showing probable cause that it was violated; thus, the Commission lacks jurisdiction over this allegation. Indeed, the Complaint fails to include any facts about the election day test whatsoever. The first sentence of his allegations clarify that they relate to “the pre-election day machine testing”—not election day testing. Complaint at 6. The documents incorporated into his allegations say the same thing, discussing testing before the November 5 election. Complaint at 7 (pre-election testing “on the morning of October 28, 2024”); Complaint at 8 (pre-election testing on “October 29, 2024, starting at 9:00); Complaint at 10 (pre-election testing on “October 29, 2024”). There is plainly no indication that anything went wrong with an election day test.

The Commission’s own rules say that this allegation should have been screened out prior to this point. Upon the filing of a complaint, the administrator must determine whether it “states probable cause.” Wis. Admin Code § EL 20.04(1). “If the complaint does not” it must be “promptly” returned to the complainant without forwarding it to the Respondents or requiring them to answer it. Wis. Admin Code §§ EL 20.04(1), (2), (3), (6). Despite the Complaint containing no facts to support the election day testing allegation, it was forwarded to the Respondents. This was error.

B. The Complaint lacks probable cause to show an improper pre-election day test.

The Complaint alleges that City of Kenosha officials failed to conduct a public pre-election test of each and every piece of automatic tabulating equipment used in the November 5, 2024 election. The Complaint pre-supposes that Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1) requires this; it does not. The statute instead requires a test of the type of equipment to be used. Since the Complaint does not allege that the type of equipment to be used was not tested, it fails to show probable cause of a violation, and must be dismissed.

Given that no published court opinion has interpreted the pre-election testing requirements of Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1), the Commission should focus its analysis on the plain language of the statute. The leading case on how to do so is Kalal.

The meaning of a statute is primarily drawn from “intrinsic sources[.]” State ex rel. Kalal v. Cir. Ct. for Dane Cnty., 2004 WI 58, ¶ 43, 271 Wis. 2d 633, 662, 681 N.W.2d 110, 123 (period added). Deference “to the policy choices enacted into law by the legislature requires that statutory interpretation focus primarily on the language of the statute. We assume that the legislature’s intent is expressed in the statutory language.” Id. at ¶ 44.

“Context is important to meaning. So, too, is the structure of the statute in which the operative language appears. Therefore, statutory language is interpreted in the context in which it is used; not in isolation but as part of a whole; in relation to the language of surrounding or closely-related statutes; and reasonably, to avoid absurd or unreasonable results.” Id. at ¶ 46. Further, statutes are interpreted to give effect to every word, to avoid surplusage. Id.

- i. The plain language of the elections statutes demonstrate that the term automatic tabulating equipment refers to a type of equipment, not a specific piece of equipment, and therefore, the obligation to test the equipment refers to the type.

The Complaint alleges that every piece of automatic tabulating equipment must be publically tested prior to the election; this view is incorrect, as the law requires a public test of the type of automatic tabulating equipment to be used, not each and every tabulator.

Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1) reads in relevant part:

Where any municipality employs an electronic voting system which utilizes automatic tabulating equipment, either at the polling place or at a central counting location, the municipal clerk shall, on any day not more than 10 days prior to the election day on which the equipment is to be utilized, have the equipment tested to ascertain that it will correctly count the votes cast for all offices and on all measures.

The obligation “to have the equipment tested” is an unambiguous reference to the term “automatic tabulating equipment.” That term “means apparatus which automatically examines and counts votes recorded on ballots or voting machines and tabulates the results.” Wis. Stat. § 5.02(1c).

Though the definition of automatic tabulating equipment makes no direct reference to whether it means a type or specific piece of equipment, the context clarifies that it is the type. See Kalal, 2004 WI 58, ¶¶ 45-46. The statutes use the term as a type of equipment when they state, “[w]here any municipality employs an electronic voting system which utilizes automatic tabulating equipment, either at the polling place or at a central counting location[.]” Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1) (alterations bracketed). The statute is triggered by municipal use of any equipment of a certain type—automatic tabulating equipment—regardless of the model or piece of equipment employed.

Throughout Chapter 5 of the Wisconsin Statutes, the term automatic tabulating equipment refers to a type of equipment:

An “Electronic voting system” is defined as “a system in which . . . votes are . . . counted and tabulated by automatic tabulating equipment.” Wis. Stat. § 5.02(4m) (ellipsis and emphasis added). The question whether the system has any automatic tabulating equipment, not a specific piece of equipment.

In the context of recounts, except “as provided in this subsection . . . if the ballots are distributed to the electors, the board of canvassers shall recount the ballots with automatic tabulating equipment.” Wis. Stat. § 5.90(1) (ellipsis and emphasis added). The statute makes no mention of any specific piece of equipment, it simply requires that a certain type of equipment be used.

A party can ask for a recount by hand if they prove “that due to an irregularity, defect, or mistake committed during the voting or canvassing process the results of a recount using automatic tabulating equipment will produce incorrect recount results[.]” Wis. Stat. § 5.90(2) (emphasis and period added). So long as any automatic tabulating equipment was used, this statute could be triggered. The term is used identically in Wis. Stat. § 5.90(3).

Since the Complaint alleges only that the Respondents did not test every piece of equipment, and does not contest whether that type of equipment was used in the election, it fails to show probable cause of a pre-election testing violation.

ii. Municipal clerks may test the type of automatic tabulating equipment for the same reason that the Commission may certify the type of automatic tabulating equipment.

Just as the Commission lawfully certifies the type, rather than every piece, of automatic tabulating equipment used in electronic voting systems, municipal clerks may lawfully certify the type of automatic tabulating equipment prior to an election.

Pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 5.91(intro), no “automatic tabulating equipment, or related equipment and materials to be used in an electronic voting system may be utilized in this state unless it is certified by the commission.” The Commission’s practice is to certify the model, and not every piece of equipment that comes into the State. This is lawful, because the term automatic tabulating equipment refers to a type of equipment and not a specific piece. So too is the practice of testing the type of equipment prior to an election. Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1).

C. The Complaint fails to show probable cause that the notice requirements for equipment testing were violated.

The Complaint fails to show probable cause of a notice violation pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 7.15(1)(d). The public is entitled to notice of the pre-election day test of the type of automatic tabulating equipment to be used in the election. The Complaint does not assert that there was no notice of this test. Instead, it alleges that the Clerk's Office did an additional private test of the equipment to ensure it worked, and did not provide public notice for it. Complaint at 6. This is not unlawful.

It is plainly not a violation for the Clerk's Office to do more tests on its election equipment than the minimum amount required by law—that's simply prudent. The pre-election test required by Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1) must be conducted ten or fewer days in advance of the election. If the equipment does not work, it would be wise to know further out than that.

As long as there is a public, pre-election day test of the automatic tabulating equipment within ten days of the election, and there is public notice of the test, there is no violation. Election officials are free to conduct as many additional private tests as they want, and these need not be publically noticed. Since the Complaint alleges no unlawful conduct, it fails to show probable cause of a violation.

IV. Apart from the Complaint's deficiencies, the Respondents complied with the law.

Aside from the matter of the Complaint's sufficiency, its allegations are wrong on the merits. The election day test was properly performed pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 5.84(2), see Certified Zero Totals Reports, and the Complaint does not allege any conduct that would be a violation of the pre-election day testing requirements. In addition, public notice of the pre-election day test was given pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 7.15(1)(d). See Certified Publication Records.

The Complaint chiefly takes issue with whether every piece of automatic tabulating equipment was publically tested prior to the election. If it brings any peace of mind, it may be worth noting that every piece of automatic tabulating equipment was privately tested prior to the election, separate and apart from any testing obligations pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 5.84(1).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, the Respondents respectfully ask the Commission to dismiss the Complaint.

I, Bryan Charbogian, being first duly sworn on oath state that I personally read this response, and it is true based on either my personal knowledge or information and belief.

Dear Mr. Nedvidek,

I am acknowledging receipt of your reason for requesting to withdraw your complaint. It has been sent to the Commissioners for their consideration of whether to dismiss the complaint as withdrawn. I have also sent them the attached request from the Kenosha respondents asking for an extension, which was granted and now allows a December 11 deadline, and asking the Commission to meet to consider the withdrawal request prior to that deadline. I will be in contact upon any further developments regarding these complaints.

Here is my reason for withdrawing the Complaint. Since Courts have been reluctant to hear post election day cases involving machine issues I filed the Complaint based on the witnesses statements so that if there did become post-election issues because of the machines there would be a formal marker in place prior to election day.
