Complaint Attachment

On Jan 10, 2023 the spring election caucus for the town of Molitor was held. It was a 7:00pm meeting. I arrived at 7:01pm and Lester Lewis, the town chairperson who is a candidate was running the caucus. He ran the entire election caucus which ended at 7:05pm. Upon me finding out this was a violation of Chapter 8.05(c) I immediately called the town clerk where there was no answer, so I left a voicemail. I then additionally sent the town clerk an email, stating the error that occurred. She replied the following morning saying that they were compliant. I stated the specific chapter violation, and she informed me that her and the town board agreed the caucus was completed correctly, thus meaning she spoke with the entire town board without calling a special meeting to discuss the matter. Lester Lewis is the chairperson and a candidate and should not of excepted any nominations to run the caucus meeting nor should he have run the caucus meeting. There were 11 meeting attendees, all of which can confirm he ran the caucus meeting.
